

Jeffrey Rageth
Board Director and Government Affairs Advisor

Biography

Jeffrey Rageth has devoted much of his life in government related positions. Early in his career, Mr. Rageth held various executive public sector management positions beginning with his appointment as the State of Minnesota, Deputy Commissioner, Department of Trade and Economic Development. Additionally, Mr. Rageth served as a City Council Member and as Mayor Pro Tem for the City of Cottage Grove Minnesota.

In 1997 he joined 3M Company and served as the Global Vice President of Government Affairs. This position combined U.S. Federal and State Government Affairs, International Public Affairs and Global Issues Management.

Mr. Rageth served for many years on the Board of Directors of United States Chamber of Commerce, United States Council for International Business, Business Council for International Understanding and US-ASEAN Business Council. Mr. Rageth also served as a member of the German-American Business Council, Washington International Business Council, Emergency Committee for American Trade, Potomac Exchange, American Council for Young Political Leaders and many other internationally focused organizations.

Today, Mr. Rageth contributes his deep background, knowledge and experience with U.S. domestic and international government affairs by serving as a board director and advisor to private and publicly held companies and non profit organizations.